Gov. Hoadley will be drafted for a sec ciril race against Judge Foraker.

The Enquirer editorially says: Springfield took care of the Republican State Convention to a manner which might be imitated with a rofft by some larger towns.

The postmastership storm still hovers over Ohlo, but is expected to come in a deluge that will satisfy the Democratic de-

Not content with stealing his territory, there seems to be a disposition to throttle or otherwise dispose of the Ameer, per consily.

The Kansas grass-hoppers are not so numerous as first reported, but they are being used for all they are worth by the Chicago grain gamblers.

President Cleveland's autograph continues to be numerously sought after. Those who desire it attached to something that means business are most numerous, also persistent.

Allen O. Myers, "bobbed up serenely for an "ad" in the convention from the reporters' table when the Ohio Legislature was mentioned. Allen O. knows what it is to be well advertised.

The Cincinnati Enquirer seems to be in throes of spasms caused by the movements of Mr. Chas. Foster, of Fostoria, O. Foster is a good man to keep that paper in the warmest kind of water.

Voltaire says that "Human opinions are merely the histories of human errors." This sageness is applicable to several people who previous to last Thursday thought raker would not be nominated

The song of the locust, as heard in the land, is one continuous, monotinous, droning hum. We trust that Prof. Riley, the entomologist, may succeed in introducing the post, scientifically, as a delictous article of food, that we may feed our enemy.

The Cincinnati Times-Star says "Springfield deserves to be patted on the back by Ohio Republicans and told that she has done nobly. How about "settin" up the pop" and other taffy?

The Convention "press-gang" boys after emerging from the Gymnasium bath rooms, were in a glow of fine feeling to write home good things about Springfield. They all did it too, except those fellers

It is said that there is considerable bus tle about the English Balmoral. This is a fashion note, or it may not be, anyway Queen Victoria has commanded the Mar quis of Salisbury to join her at Balmoral and it is supposed to mean the formation of a Conservative Government under his

The appointment of a Union soldier t office by President Cleveland, in the person of Col. Denby as minister to China. was received with surprise in Republican circles at Washington. It is found that Col. Denby resigned his position as soon as Lincoln issued the Emancipation Proclamation, saying he would never fight to tree the slaves.

While the city was filled with strangers and the busy preparation for the convention was going on, our people did not forget that Hon. John H. Littler was being laid away away in his last resting place. That his death and funeral should occur at a time when his many distinguished party associates were gathering in his own home city to nominate the leaders in the campaign to follow was of peculiar sadness, and universal regret.

Boquets of flowers from silly women bave begun to set in toward Cluverius, the condemned murderer of Lillian Madison at Richmond, Va. What there may be in woman-killer to attract other women is somewhat difficult to determine, but the bequets continue to flow in: the more women killed the more flowers, generally,

After the storm of convention, the ring ing shouts for Fornker, Kennedy, Rose the noise of brass bands, the latter still ringing in the ears, Springfield is settling down to real business again, with an eve however, upon the Democratic convention The Democrats would find Springfield with her "hand in" and ready if they would ac cept the hospitality of a Republican city

There was no more earnestly active and watchful a Republican at the Convention than Major W. D. Bickham of the Dayton Journal. He has been to several Conven tions, too, in his active political lifetime and this is what he says about Springfield "The Journal withdraws all previous observations about holding a State Convenion at Springfield. That splendid city of big men rose to the occasion.

Cottonwood and poplar trees are said to e the best preventive of undaria to be had. They are absorbents, both root and eaves, and their anti-malarial virtue is recognized with such faith that authorities at Washington have ordered a large supply of them for the Potomac flats. The question arises whether Hondly will order a sprig of cottonwood for a buttonhole boquet in his canvass against Fornker this time. By the way isn't it Fornker that should surround himself with cotton wood and poplar? Headly's malaria was generally accredited as the saving hustler for Hoadly, the last time.

The Ohio Republicans will be called upon to support the following ticket:

Governor, Joseph B. Foraker, of Hamilton county; Lieutenant Governor, Robert P. Kennedy, of Logan; Supreme Judge, George W. McIlvaine, of Tuscarawas; Treasurer, John C. Brown, of Jefferson; Attorney General, J. A. Kohler, of Summit: Member o Board of Public Works, Wells S. Jones,

Of which the Dayton Journal says "The Republican tickets embodies the Methohist, Baptist and Prestyvierian churcher the societies that are known, including the Grand Army and Lovel Legion and other army organizations; and Americans of Irish, German, Welsh, and English The ticket covers as ground as possible with six names, and all or the men are of the most mauful character

As the Democratic papers freely admit, it is a mighty strong combination

It is greatly to the honor of a nation of a state to remember her dead heroes whose lives were sacrificed in their defence from an enemy public or private. It is especially so for the states of the great North to commemorate in a fitting way not only the victories of our civil war, but to preserve in sacred perpetuity the names of the fallen on enduring marble, and on the spot where they fell. In deference to this grand and patriotic idea Ohio has inaugurated a movement to place on the field of Genrysours a memorial to the Ohio soldiers. Adjutant-General Findley has issued an address to Ohio soldiers who participated in the battle of Gettysburg, calling for a meeting at the State House on July 4th to grange for the purchase of grounds and the spot where Ohio soldiers fell in said battle. The call is issued in pursuance of the McBride law of last winter

The Scott Law and the various decise ions under it promises to be one of the peculiar illustrations of what may be done without much regard as to the manner of it. The money paid into the different County Treasuries under the Scott Law. suits for the recovery of which have been before the Supreme Court for some time. have been decided against the saloon keepers. Hence the money paid by the saloonist, under the impression that the law would stand and they would be prosecuted if they failed to pay, cannot be re covered. The decision therefore allows the county treasurers to retain the money so paid, but on what ground is not known as yet. Judges Okey and Follet dissented from the majority of the court, Judges McIlvaine, Owen and Johnson. This decision saves many counties from great embarassment in enabling them to retain and use money which is particularly needed by them to make both ends meet. The amount which would have to be refunded in case the court had decided otherwise vas more than $2,000,000. Much has been written in praise of Cal itornia, as well as other places and countries, its delightfullness of climate and other advantages, much that disappointed emigrants have failed to realize. Hence, the following from a friend of the Grone-REPUBLIC is well said :

"California comes out for its share of condemnation. No country, perhaps, has been more over rated and more widely advertised over the world than the state of California and often times excessive extenuating ac-counts that surprise an Eastern observer with wonder at the extent of bugle blowing is done keep this little patch of earth with all its big Pacific glory before the eyes of the world True it is adjacent to the brodest, the despest and the most wonderful oceans on the globe but who cares how broad or how deep that ocean is when we know that Dayton Springfield and other great cities in Ohio a ot only adjacent—but are surrounded by the roadest, the richest and the most beautiful valley to be found anywhere else, suitable or everything that is needful for man or beast, climate not excepted. Climate in Ol chesp, costs nothing, free to everybody who wants it and just as free to everybod John. One cubic yard of climate in Californis has more sides to it than the law allows in most any other place. It has one seloon to every 11 votes in the city of San Fran-

It is coming to be understood or should be, that political conventions are not places for long speeches. The delegates are there for the one purpose that of nominating candidates and long-winded addresses are listened to, if at all, with impatience which often manifests itself against highly creditable addresses by inmistakable requests to "cut it short."

The speech of Col. Taylor, the Permanent Chairman of the Republican Convenion did not sound well to the delegates who were feverish with impatience for the fray to begin for which they had assembled. But it is a strong document able and thoughtful and will be read by the delegates when they get settled at home again, as it will be by the Republicans of the State to whom it was addressed.

Important Partition Suit.

By the r attorney, J. K. Mower, a civil suit was filed Friday by Mary T. Springman, Emms Coburn, Moses D. Coburn against Marths Sprigman, Sarah Abigail Sprigman, Ida Beristodt, Octavia Marshall, John E. Marshall, Peter Sprigman, Kittle Sprigman, Ida Sandan and husband, O. S. Kelly and C., C., C. & I R. R. The petition asks for a partition of the disputed ground on Market claimed by the Sprigman heirs. They also claim that part of their ground is covered by the Arcade and part by the C. C. C. & I. railroad. They claim this valuable tract reverts to the Sprigman heirs on the ground that the terms of the will, providing that it should be used for market purposes only, have been violated. There has been frequent talk about buying out the heirs, but nothing has been done in the

The members of the city police force who. as special detectives, were in citizen's clothes during the convention, are recognized by their friends more readily on essuming the miterm again. > Manager. The Divorce Mill.

In Common Pleas court, yesterday morning, ludge White heard the divorce case of Ezra Banzhof against Frances Banzhof and granted decree on ground of adultery.

Wm. M. Rockel, Esq., as attorney for Belle anderson, brought suit today for her divorce from Con. Anderson,on ground of the latter's willful absence for three years last past. The parties were only married in April, 1882, and t would seemtheir period of connubial felicity was remarkably short-lived.

Business in court is about on a par with other business. Not much doing and not much in the little that is doing.

On Thursday night one tired 'conventionist' was seen lying in the gutter in front of the Shaffer Street school, using the curb stone as a pillow. He was evidently a most orderly person in his babits, for before retiring to rest, he had removed his shoes, stockings, hat, collar and coat and vest, and carefully piled them up on the sidewalk at his head The police were informed of his presence, but before they got there he had changed his The observance of what it known as "Chilfren's Day" today (Sunday) evening at 7:45, in the Trinity Baptist church, corner of Mulberry and Limestone streets, promises to be an occasion of great interest to all who may attend. In addition to the readings, recstations, music, etc., by the school, there will be a concise history of the origin of "Chil dren's Day," A cordial invitation is extended A party from one of the back townships arrived in the city Friday attermoon to attend the convention. He was not a little surprised to find it had done its work the day before and dissolved. He at once subscribed for the papers and will endeavor to keep better posted in the future. This is a fact. Colonel David King had the pleasure

Thursday, of entertaining half a dozen officers of his regiment, the Ninty-fourth O. V. relatives and friends at the residence of Mr some of whom were here to attend the convention, the others residing in this city and county. For an impromptu reunion, it was a more than ordinarily and mutually agreeable gathering.

Cushman, the artist, has done the handsome thing by making Mitchell Post a present of the life-size crayon portrait of General Grant which formed part of the decorations in the wigwam. It has been conspicuously hung in the Post room, and the old vets are delighted and thankful to the donor.

SEFENTH REGIMENT

to General Engampment of the Ohio National Guard to be Held—Localities fo Battalion Considered,

The expressions of a large proportion of ofcers of the O. N. G. being adverse to the holding of a general encampment of the force, as proposed in some quarters, the Commander-in-chief has issued the following general order for regimental camps, the batteries being assigned to one or another of these ADJUTANT-GENERAL'S OFFICE, Y and Mrs. Joseph Byers. About 10:30 the For information pertaining to the annua ncampment of the Ohio National Guard for he year 1885, the following orders are here-

I. The National Guard of Obio will go into camp by regiments on or before the first day of November, 1885, for a period of not less than four, nor more than six days—as provided by Section 3078 of Revised Statutes at such places as may be selected by the commanding officers of the regiments, after giving notice as provided by law Unless otherwise ordered, the several patteries will go into camp with the infantry. s follows

ment; the Eighth Battery with the Four-teenth Regiment; the Sixth Battery with the Eighth Regiment; the First Battery with the Firth Regiment; the Third Battery with the Firth Regiment; the Seventh Battery with the Sixth Regiment; the Second Battery the First Regimen; the Fourth Battery with the Sixteenth Regiment, and the Governor's Guard will go into camp with the Fourteenth Regiment, and the Toledo Cadeta with Six. eenth Regiment.

Transportation at the rate of one and one-half cents per mile per capita to and from camp by the most direct route will be allowed within regimental territorial limits only. counded by the counties in which any of the companies are located,

IV. The State of Obio will allow, on approval of the Adjutant-General, for rent of encampment grounds, horse hire for officers, uel, lumber, straw for soldier's bedding medicine and medical supplies, and printing for encampment, an amount to each regimen not exceeding in the aggreeate fifty dollars for each company of infantrry or battery of artillery in camp; provided, that vouchers such expenditure must be accompanied by an itemize | bill for the same, certified correct by the officer contracting the indebtedness, and approved by the officer command ing the regiment, battery, or unattached company, who must certify upon honor that no part of said indebteiness has been paid or provided for by donations or otherwise.

ler of Gronde Hoadly, Governor and Commander-in-Chief, By order of E. B. FISLEY, Adjutant-General. An explanatory note states that the apororiation of $50 per company for camp exenses was made with the intention of doing way with the objectionable feature of collection of admission fee at the gate, making the camp free to all every day. It an admission fee is charged the $50 is not paid by the State, and if an encampment is held outside the regimental district the State is not responsible for the additional expense. Colonel White has not definitely selected the location of the Seventh Regiment and Fifth Battery camp, but will open communication with his officers shortly, on that point. Hamilton is mentioned and strongly favored, and there i some talk of having the encampment here during the Grand Army encampment in August.

Card From Judge Dial. To the Editor of the Globe-Republic,

I am informed that certain persons say that if I were to be elected a member of the Legislature again, I would undertake to "bust up" our public school system again. The bill which I offered in the House of Representatives in 1881, was simply and only an amendment to the present law, and such amendments are substantially embraced in the following three sections, viz:

Section 3915. The board of education of each township district shall consist of six members. Section 3916. The members of the board f education of each township district shall be elected by the qualified electors thereof, by ballot, as follows: At the first annual election for township officers, after the passage of this act, six judicious and competent persons shall e elected members of the board of educe tion; two of whom are to serve for one year two to serve two years, and to serve three years from the t Monday of April succeeding their succeeding their election, and until the election and qualification of their successors; and two competent and judicious persons shall likewise be elected at nually thereafter to serve three years, as afore-

Sec. 4018. The board of education of each township district shall take possession of al the public school property, real and personal in the district, and shall have the manage ment and control of the same, and of the r lic schools of the district, from and after the third Monday of April succeeding the passage of this act, and shall employ the teachers and fix their salaries or pay.

The board shall make all other necessary provisions for the schools under its control, and order all other payments for services rendered by its employes, and for all articles furnished upon its order.

This presents the substance of the proposes mendment. The bill was approved by the leading educators, not only of Ohio, but of many other States, including Wickersham. State school superintendent of the public schools of Pennsylvania for a quarter of s century; John Q. Adams, of Quincy, Mass. Colonel Parker, superintendent of public schools of Boston; E. E. White, and every other State school superintendent of Ohio for the last fifteen years.

Death of Mr. James Brown, of Urbana Doctor and Miss Fannie Bryant, I. J. Price, . C. Price and family, and W. H. Griffith. of this city; Mr., and Mrs., George Harris. James Titus and tamily, and Doctor Hazzard and family, of Springfield township, and Mr. Jos. Blair, of Winons, Ill., formerly of Springfield, went to Urbana Friday to attend the funeral of James Brown, who has been for many years the agent of the Pan Handle road in that city, and who died last Wednesday after a protracted and very painful illness. For more than thirty years, Mr. Brown was identified with railroad interests in this part of the country. He was formerly a railroad engineer and assisted n constructing several of the roads in Central Ohio. He was related to many of the prominent citizens of Champaign, Clark and Miami counties and had a great number of friends in each, who deeply sympathize with his afflicted family. He came to Springfield last March and was placed under the professional care of Dr. W. G. Bryant, whose skill and unfaltering attention were taxed to the stmost in his behalf. A short time ago Mr Brown returned to Urbana and his friends then entertained some hopes, though slight, of his final recovery. But he soon afterwards grew worse rapidly and at six o'clock, Wednesday morning, passed quietly away. During his busy life and months of suffering and in the hour of death his example was well worthy of emulation.

Meeting of Executive Committee on Grand Army Day.

As Department Commander Brown was obliged to leave home on the 10:20 Columbus train, the meeting of the Executive Committee making arrangements for the August soldiers. reunion was held at 8 o'clock Saturday morn ing. General Brown outlined the plan which the Department officers had in mind, by which the local committee will be governed in their work. He also made numerous suggestions and gave much valuable information, in accordance with which the committee took the following action: A committee on printing consisting of A. O. Huffman, F. S-Penfield and J. W. Niuffer was appointed and instructed to have printed as once five thousand half-sheet posters, in two colors, announcing the encampment. Capt. A. S. Bushnell and Col. J. E. Stewart were appointed a committee to attend the meeting of the Central Passenger Agents, convention in Chicago, June 16, and secure special rates over all lines of railroad centering here. It was also decided to place on duty one or more comrades at principal transfer points in the State to assist members of the Women's Relief Corps coming to the meeting here in finding the right trains.

Col. W. J. White was appointed chairman of the committee on regimental organizations and instructed to secure the loan of regiments al colors from the flag room at Columbus,

Department hendquarters will be on the Fair Grounds, where all staff officers will be located but a first floor room of ample dimensions will be secured and kept open somewhere near the railroad stations as headquarters in town, for furnishing information and other nurnoses

An invitation was extended the ex-Prisoners of War Association to change their date and place of meeting and meet here during the encampment. It was estimated that 15,000 soldiers would be at the Fair Grounds and 5,000 in the city during the two days, and quarters and subsistence will have to be provided for these.
